

A first thing in the morning Prayer...

Thank You, Lord, as I awaken this morning I reckon myself dead indeed to sin and alive to God in Christ. Thank You, Lord. So Lord, I honour You, I respect You, I give You thanks, You are God of the universe. You are. You are God, I worship You, I praise You. Thank You, Lord Jesus, Your body was broken for me, Your blood was poured out, and I thank You. Thank You God, You delivered me from me. Thank You it is no longer (...insert your name) who lives, but Christ who lives in (...insert your name). And now today Lord, You are going to be glorified in who You made me to be, and it will not be by my might, or by power, but by Your Spirit. Father, I thank You that today You in me are dreaming of doing the works that You've laid up in advance for me to do. Father, I thank You, that You're wanting to do exceedingly abundantly above all I can ask, hope or imagine. And so Father I submit my mind to You, I submit my dreaming, I submit my thoughts, I submit my wineskin, my capacity, and I say, come Holy Spirit, teach me Your ways, show me Your paths and guide me in the way everlasting. Hallelujah. Amen.
