

Catholics Returning Home

Is a five week support programme that aims at helping Catholics return to the Church.

This programme is designed

- * to recognise the feelings of each participant
- * to help each participant to understand that they're not alone.
- * to give the participant the opportunity to view things in a new light.

For most Catholics who have been inactive, coming home to a personal relationship with God is challenging.

The Catholics Returning Home Programme will provide a welcoming space in your own Faith community to help you take that first challenging step.

The list of reasons for leaving could be a long one;
and everyone wonders
how to start a return journey:

Maybe it's as easy as trusting the feeling that you want to do something now.

Would company help?

Here's an idea:

Perhaps you may know of a friend,
or a family member who has talked about 'coming back'.

Why not come along together and give support to each other.

Comments from some previous programme participants:

"I didn't think it would be that easy".

*"Thank you for listening,
sharing and caring."*

"I'm back!"

"He must increase; I must decrease." (Jn 3:30)

5 Week Programme Schedules

Hi there, I'm Fr Jack Robson, Parish Priest of St John the Baptist Catholic Church Woy Woy Peninsula.

It's possible that many of you reading this will have, at some point in your life, made a decision to no longer practise your Catholic faith or you have simply drifted away from the faith and are struggling to find a way back.

I accept that many of you have struggled with your faith across the years. Knowing this, our parish, along with four other parishes nearby, would like to offer you a tool to help you find the way back through a no-blame, no-judgement, no-pressure, once a week programme over 5 weeks called 'Catholics Returning Home'.

I ask that you consider this programme, in the hope it may help you with your struggles and enable you to find a way back to your faith and the waiting arms of Jesus.

Just reading this pamphlet has been a great start!

If you do decide to come along, even if it's just for the Information Evening, you would be most welcome.

Yours in Christ, Fr Jack.
